Toronto, Ontario May 2016 - Bowers, the pet industry's leading manufacturer of high-end designer pet beds, recently launched their Oslo Ortho Bed with Cool Gel Memory Foam. Cool Gel Memory Foam is the latest innovation in sleep comfort. This gel infused memory foam provides superior support and also regulates body temperature. Two tone fabric combinations and French scalloped edge create a modern sleek look. The cover is completely machine washable and dryable.

this bed not only looks chic and modern but is the ultimate in sleep comfort for you dog. It is also great for older or arthritic dogs, said Eileen Wilkes, lead designer.

Bowers has been manufacturing their award winning pet beds and accessories in North America since 1997. Their products are sold on line and in pet boutiques across the United States, Canada and Europe.
