D.T. Systems to Attend SuperZoo 2016

Dallas, TX. — D.T. Systems manufacturer, of dog training products and accessories for over 30 years, will attend the upcoming SuperZoo convention in Las Vegas, Nevada, August 1-4, 2016.

Attendees of the convention can see the D.T. Systems line of e-collars, bird launchers, dummy launchers and other training gear at booth number 6116. The line of Pet Safe dog training products will also be on display.

“We are once again proud to be displaying our line of dog training products at this year’s SuperZoo event,” said D.T. Systems Director of Sales, Steve Hines. “No matter where you are in your dog training product assortment, D.T. Systems has a product that will work for you.”
