

Ideal Pet Products to Feature Pet Door Designs at SuperZoo

Ideal Pet Products will be featuring their innovative products at SuperZoo in booth #1503. As a leading developer of pet doors since 1979, Ideal Pet Products is committed to creating cutting-edge products that improve quality of life for pets and their owners. Based in California, Ideal Pet Products strives to provide optimal freedom and protection for cats and dogs while assuring owners that their four-legged family members are safe and comfortable. The company's selection of products includes over 200 pet doors and pet product replacement parts that are handcrafted to take into account customers' unique needs. Ideal Pet Products is passionate about conserving natural resources by designing energy-saving pet doors.

One of their products on display at SuperZoo will be their Designer Series Pet Doors. The Designer Series Plastic Pet Door model is made for door installation with a single flexible tinted vinyl flap, or the Energy Saving Designer Series Ruff Weather Pet Door model is made for door or optional wall installation and feature dual flexible tinted vinyl flaps. Both models include a strong plastic Lock-Out slide to keep your Ideal Pet out of mischief when unsupervised.

The newest addition to the Ideal Pet Products line-up is the Designer Series Ruff Weather Pet Door "Alarm Alert" model which also boasts an alarm that sounds when the slide is unintentionally removed! Features include:

- Easy installation
- Flexible tinted vinyl flap with edges that won't warp from use or extreme temperatures
- Floating bottom threshold
- Designer Series Plastic and Designer Series Ruff Weather models offer Small, Medium, Extra Large and Super Large flap sizes for pets 2-120 lbs.
- Designer Series Ruff Weather "Alarm Alert" model offer Extra Large and Super Large flap sizes for pets 90-120 lbs.
- Optional Wall Kit for the Designer Series Ruff Weather model sold separately
- One Year Warranty

Ideal Pet Products will also be showcasing several new Eyenimal products at the booth during SuperZoo. Ideal Pet Products is the North America partner to Eyenimal and will also feature their exciting pet-technology products.
