

Hannah Zulueta

Hannah believes dogs are family. Daily life includes the two pups, no matter the activity or the destination. For her, a shared life is an inspired life. She shares their daily adventures on Instagram: @maggielovesorbit as well as on their blog www.maggielovesorbit.com.

Before the dogs, Hannah spent 20 years in travel sales and marketing. This career took her away from home, so she pivoted and decided to build a new career around her dogs.
