SuperZoo 2018 Welcomes Record Number of Qualified Pet Product Buying Companies to Annual Trade Show

North America's most-attended pet retail event gathered thousands of pet industry professionals in Las Vegas, June 25-28, 2018

MONROVIA, CA – JULY 2, 2018 – SuperZoo, the leading North American pet retail trade show and conference produced by World Pet Association (WPA), wrapped its annual event on Thursday at Mandalay Bay in Las Vegas, boasting numerous new features and product areas and welcoming pet business professionals from around the world to engage in product discovery, expert-led education and peer-to-peer networking.

As North America's leading pet industry event, SuperZoo raised the bar, one more time, with a brand-new Made in the USA Showcase and Pet Tech Center and world-class grooming competitions. Boasting more retail stores in attendance than in 2017, SuperZoo 2018 drew 9,500 buyers to continue to cement its place as the pet industry event with the largest buyer audience in North America. To ensure a high-quality buying audience, WPA implemented a buyer credential process which led to this increase in attending stores.

SuperZoo 2018 introduced an expanded show floor, three product showcases, over 70 expert-led seminars and valuable networking opportunities throughout the week. Building on its 65-year history of helping pet retailers and service professionals discover new products, learn essential tools to grow their business and connect with peers who share their passion, SuperZoo leads the industry by bringing the extensive community of independent retailers, international and corporate buyers, service professionals and groomers together for the betterment of the pet industry.

“SuperZoo’s impressive growth is evidence that the outlook for pet retail, while competitive, is still very positive,” said Jacinthe Moreau, WPA president. “SuperZoo 2018 was dedicated to ensuring that pet retailers and service professionals had access to concrete education, networking opportunities, innovative products and emerging trends. WPA is committed to supporting the industry year-round and we are eager to unveil state-of-the-art programs and service offerings in the coming year. As the industry grows, so does our commitment to championing the needs of consumer-facing pet businesses.”

SuperZoo 2018 show highlights included:

- Nearly 1,200 exhibitors showcasing thousands of the most innovative products for pet lovers, including nearly 630 new products launched in SuperZoo’s New Product Showcase
